Event - Accessible Events Show

Title	Accessible Events Show
When	Thu, 29. October 2026
Where	The Drum - Wembley, GB
Category	Business & Conference

Description

The Accessible Events Show 2026 brings together event professionals, venues, suppliers and accessibility specialists for a day dedicated to creating more inclusive events for disabled people.

Designed for everyone involved in planning, delivering or supporting events, the show offers practical advice, expert-led presentations, interactive workshops and an exhibition showcasing products and services that help improve accessibility across the events industry. It provides an opportunity to explore best practice, discover innovative solutions and connect with organisations committed to making events more welcoming and accessible for all.

Following a successful launch, the Accessible Events Show has quickly established itself as an important event within the industry, recognised for its commitment to promoting accessibility and inclusion. Whether you organise conferences, exhibitions, festivals or public events, the show offers valuable insights and practical ideas that can be applied to future event planning.

Communication Support

This event includes British Sign Language (BSL) interpretation, helping to ensure presentations and discussions are accessible to Deaf BSL users.

If you have additional accessibility requirements, we recommend contacting the event organisers before attending to discuss the support and facilities available.

Why Attend?

The Accessible Events Show is ideal for:

- Event organisers and planners
- Conference and exhibition professionals
- Venue managers
- Accessibility and inclusion leads
- Marketing and communications professionals
- Suppliers of accessible event services and technology

Whether you're taking your first steps towards improving accessibility or looking to build on existing good practice, the show provides practical guidance, networking opportunities and the chance to learn from organisations leading positive change across the events industry.
