Description

Agatha Christie's The Hollow returns to the stage in a compelling new adaptation, bringing one of Hercule Poirot's most intriguing investigations to life.

What begins as a peaceful weekend at an elegant country estate soon descends into mystery when a gunshot shatters the tranquillity and a body is discovered.

As hidden rivalries, long-held resentments and dangerous relationships come to light, the seemingly straightforward case becomes anything but. With his trademark attention to detail, Hercule Poirot must unravel the truth before the killer slips away.

Adapted by Tamsin Oglesby and directed by Lucy Bailey, this new production stars Peter Polycarpou as the famous Belgian detective and promises an atmospheric evening of suspense for Agatha Christie fans and newcomers alike.
