Title	Tristan & Yseult
When	Thu, 8. October 2026, 19:30 h
Where	Yvonne Arnaud Theatre - Guilford
Category	BSL Interpreted Theatre

Description

Experience the return of Tristan & Yseult, the acclaimed production that has captivated audiences around the world and helped redefine contemporary theatre.

Based on the ancient Cornish legend, this timeless story explores love, loyalty and destiny as Tristan and Yseult find themselves bound together by forces beyond their control.

Their journey unfolds through powerful storytelling, live music and striking movement, bringing a centuries-old tale vividly to life for modern audiences.

Adapted and directed by Emma Rice, this celebrated production returns to the UK stage for the first time in a decade. Originally created in 2003, Tristan & Yseult has become one of the most influential theatre productions of recent decades, renowned for its imaginative staging, emotional depth and distinctive theatrical style.

Communication Support

This performance features a British Sign Language (BSL) interpreter, providing Deaf BSL users with live communication support throughout the performance.

For the best experience, you may wish to contact the theatre's Box Office before booking to discuss seating that offers a clear view of both the stage and the interpreter.

Please note: Event details, performance times and communication support arrangements may occasionally change. We recommend confirming the latest information directly with the event organiser before booking or travelling.
